

Local women named to panel

STAFF REPORT

Two Chattanoogaans have been named to the 2004-05 executive committee for the Legal Professionals of Tennessee.

According to a news release from the organization, Pamela M. Thomas has been named president-elect, and Evia Betts is the functional governor of marketing.

Both Ms. Thomas and Ms. Betts are from the law firm Baker, Donaldson, Bearman and Caldwell, the release states.

Other officers are President Sandy Hughes, Vice President Lisa C. Erwin, Secretary Nanette M. Green and Functional Governor of Strategic Planning Linda Davenport.